SMITHFIELD AND UNION

ALTOGETHER

INDIVIDUAL

AFTER YEARS OF DECLINE, THERE IS A NEW SPIRIT OF OPTIMISM IN THIS UNIQUE PART OF BELFAST. A PLACE
WHERE YOU MEET ALL KINDS. YOU DO
ALL SORTS. YOU BUY ANYTHING

RUNNING

all the way from Smithfield Market to Frederick Street.

Smithfield and Union contains some of Belfast’s oldest and most iconic buildings, each one with enduring stories to tell—Belfast Central Library, Clifton House, century-old newspaper publishers, historic curiosities and Smithfield Market.

Though newly established, Smithfield and Union has existed for generations. Its identity and its existence has never been lost in the everyday. It’s a place where you meet a different rhythm, the different, the separate, the melancholic and the eclectic.

Diversity is its core.
