MADE AT THE CLAY STUDIO: WORK BY GUEST ARTISTS IN RESIDENCE, 2009-2010

REED SMITH GALLERY
August 6 - September 12, 2010

Opening Reception  First Friday, August 6, 5 - 9 PM

Made At The Clay Studio is a group exhibition including sculpture and objects made by artists from around the world, all whom have taken part in our Guest Artist in Residence Program. The work on view was created over the past year, and celebrates the creative vision of each who has been fortunate enough to be part of this program. Since its founding, the program has hosted artists from 40 countries. 2009-2010 was unusual in the number of Americans represented in the program, with two of them creating community based exhibition projects, exhibitions as part of the National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts Conference the Studio played host to this past Spring.

J.J. McCracken, USA   |   Edith Garcia, England   |   Judythe VanAmringe, USA
Deborah Schwartzkopf, USA   |   Michael Moore, Ireland

Ceramic arts are our passion at The Clay Studio, a non-profit learning center in the heart of Old City, Philadelphia. Our exhibitions, retail shop, classes, artist residencies and community outreach programs educate and inspire locally, nationally and internationally.