He wrote it in such a way, that it would reach the most distant generations and not be subject to chance. That at the END OF TIME, there will be DEVASTATION and RUIN.

On the first day of creation, God wrote a magical sentence to ward off such evils.